Impress for Less

Stylist Annie Ladino has worked her magic with such stars as Brooklyn Decker and Becki Newton. We asked her to create a unique outfit from pieces under $100

Style Q&A

What's one item of clothing a woman shouldn't live without?

A pair of wild shoes. It may seem counterintuitive, but a simple combo of skinny jeans and a fresh white T-shirt becomes a strong and sexy ensemble when teamed with eye-catching heels. I just bought black-and-white leopard-print Alaïa pumps on Shopittome.com (I'm the site's chief stylist), and I plan on wearing them all season long.

What's your most recent obsession?

Inexpensive Timex watches. I find them in all shapes and sizes at stores like Kmart for around $20. I'll layer multiples of the dainty metal kinds with various bangles for a fun arm party, or I'll wear just a classic black-strap one alone.

How else would you style these jeans?

For a night out, swap the turtleneck for a black sequined tank or a white camisole and top it off with a black blazer. Push up the sleeves to increase the cool factor and to show off your wrist candy. Metallic stilettos are the perfect finishing touch.
